

Have you heard about Tapestry's Certificate in Employee Share Plans?

Tapestry's Certificate in Employee Share Plans course is accredited by the Chartered Governance Institute UK & Ireland (CGIUKI).

Designed and taught by leading law firm, Tapestry, it is a professionally recognised qualification that combines technical know-how with practical experience of advising clients – essential for anyone who works with executive or employee share plans.

Course participants who successfully pass the examinations are eligible for affiliated membership and therefore have the opportunity to become members of the CGIUKI.

- Combining technical know-how with workable examples
- Expert tuition from Tapestry's legal and compliance experts
- Share best practice and experiences through networking opportunities
- Practical tips and up-to-date information on key legal and regulatory topics

Enhance your share plans expertise with the must-have qualification for the industry!

2025 course details and dates to be announced soon!

Find out more, contact: training@tapestrycompliance.com or visit www.tapestrycertesp.com

Accredited by:

